THOUSANDS PAY LAST TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO STRIKE MARTYR

THE ROYAL CLAY BY STRIKE BREAKER

Great Demonstration by Comrades and Friends in Honor of Michael Cunningham, Victim of Strike-Breaker's Revolver—Escort from Teamsters' Union.

Five thousand people attended the funeral services for Michael J. Cunningham, union teamster killed by a strike-breaker, at St. Peter and Paul's Church on Broadway, South Boston, to-day.

Such a demonstration of sympathy has seldom been seen in the city. The church, which held 3,000 people, was packed to the doors. Many stood in the aisles of the auditorium and balcony.

Every seat was taken.

2,000 BARE HEADS IN STREET.

Outside more than 2,000 people stood on the sidewalks and on the steps of the church, their heads bared and eyes filled with tears. Rev. Father Walter D. Brown, the acting rector, sang the high mass of requiem.

Four hundred teamsters, most of them strikers, paid their tribute to the man who had died to the fight. They escorted the hearse from the Cunningham home on West Fifth street to the church.

It was a notable tribute that this great throng paid to the young man whose life was taken because he sought to prevent another from getting into trouble, knowing that the war to win for his comrades was to have ended at his death. It was to have ended at his death, no matter what the consequences, for he was a man of courage and a man of action.

At an early hour the street in front of the Cunningham home was thronged with people. Hundreds who had not been able to get into the house last night to look for the last time on the features of the man who had died to-day for the cause of his fellow teamsters.

STRIKERS ACT AS ESCORT. Soon after 8 o'clock the strikers arrived, walking in solemn, compact mass, their shining brass buttons displayed on the lapels of their coats.

They were led by President William O'Neil, Business Agent James J. Tobin and President John J. Sullivan of the East Boston Union. Behind them came the members of the house whose comrades of Michael Cunningham walked with bare heads to the waiting hearse. At the head of the procession came the members of the house whose comrades of Michael Cunningham walked with bare heads to the waiting hearse.

Many in Tears. During the service many in the great throng gave way to their tears. Dr. M. J. Sheehan sang "The Lord's Prayer" for the dead.

At the close of the mass John T. Longhins sang "The Lord's Prayer" for the dead. The close of the service the fare of the dead boy was exposed to view for

"A CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR"—WHITNEY

MILLIONAIRE RAILROAD MAN FORMALLY DECLARES HIS POSITION.

Henry M. Whitney this afternoon made his first positive official statement of his intention to be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

"When I arrived home from the South yesterday, I stated that it was too early to make a positive declaration relative to the gubernatorial nomination, that if the people wanted me to serve them again as Governor, of course, I would give the matter consideration, out of respect to the people and the Democratic party. As to whether or not I am a candidate for Governor, I have not a few words to say."

Expansion the Issue. "Expansion of the trade area of Massachusetts is the issue I have been preaching for years, and it is the issue that I shall reach."

"I believe I can be elected Governor," Mr. Whitney said. "I have no doubt that I can be elected Governor."

GEORGE HUFF DESIGNS; HUFF CLUB PROMOTED

BOSTON CLUB'S MANAGER DOESN'T LIKE PROFESSIONAL BALL AND RETURNS TO ILLINOIS.

George Huff, manager of the BOSTON AMERICAN baseball club, handed his resignation to President John I. Taylor this morning, giving as reasons for his action that he did not like the professional baseball and that he would return to his old position as athletic director of the University of Illinois, leaving for the West to-night.

President Taylor accepted the resignation with good will and later in the day had a talk with Captain English, with a view of increasing the latter's powers, so that he will have full control on the bench as well as in the field, incidentally accepting the resignation of Huff as a big surprise.

In Charge Thirteen Days. Huff has been in charge of the Boston team for thirteen days, and during that time he has shown himself to be a good manager and a man of action.

Since the time that Lincoln made his confession, H. U. Warren, the legal advisor of the Fidelity company, has been inventing a series of lies to cover up the confession. The investigation was completed last night and Warren immediately consulted with his home office and was instructed to proceed against Lincoln at once.

Lancola was arrested by Chief of Police Lowell J. Boston and a deputy. The officers were met at the door of the home by Lancola himself. Upon learning their errand he submitted to arrest without a murmur. Taking his coat from the rack, he called his wife and children, bade them an affectionate farewell and accompanied

Expect He Will Get Bail.

In court to-day he was represented by former Mayor George W. Greene. The indications are that he will secure bail. It is rumored that a man from Worcester will turn out the money.

The detectives employed by the electric light company directors have been guarding the residence of the man, 100½ E. Main street, Worcester, since Saturday afternoon. They are looking toward arrest of the man at any moment.

Within the past few months Mr. Lincoln has been the victim of a violent eruption which at times appeared very unsightly and distressing. He has, to a limited degree, on his body. I consulted a number of medical men without result, and last January he was admitted to the Worcester hospital, where, on his scalp, and face, which was so bad that he could not even leave the house, so I finally secured the following:
